SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The Florida Constitution requires all property to be assessed at just value (i.e. market value) as of January 1 of each year for purposes of ad valorem taxation. Property assessments are used to calculate ad valorem taxes that fund counties, municipalities, district school boards and special districts. The taxable value against which local governments levy tax rates each year reflects the just value as reduced by applicable exceptions and exemptions allowed by the Florida Constitution. One such exemption is on the first $25,000 of assessed value of a homestead property, which is exempt from all taxes. A second homestead exemption is on the assessed value between $50,000 and $75,000, which is exempt from all taxes other than school district taxes.

The homestead property of a veteran who was honorably discharged with a service-connected total and permanent disability is exempt from taxation. To qualify for this exemption, the veteran must be a permanent resident of the state on January 1 of the tax year for which exemption is being claimed. The presentation of a letter of total and permanent disability from the United States Government or United States Department of Veterans Affairs by a veteran or their spouse to the property appraiser is prima facie evidence of entitlement to the exemption.

The bill allows a veteran who was honorably discharged with a service-connected total and permanent disability to apply for this homestead property exemption in the current tax year for a property acquired after January 1 of the tax year if the veteran had received the exemption on another property in the immediately preceding tax year.

The bill provides that notwithstanding the exemption filing deadline established by statute, the veteran may file for the exemption with the property appraiser up to the 25th day following the date the property appraiser mails the TRIM notice under s. 200.069, F.S. The application for the exemption must list and describe both the previous homestead and new property. The applicant must also certify under oath that he or she:

- Is otherwise qualified to receive the tax exemption for permanently and totally disabled veterans;
- Holds legal title to the new property; and
- Intends to use the new property as his or her homestead.

The bill may have an indeterminate fiscal impact on local governments.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2020.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

Ad Valorem Taxation

The Florida Constitution reserves to local governments the authority to levy ad valorem taxes on real and tangible personal property.¹ Ad valorem taxes are levied annually by counties, cities, school districts, and some special districts based on the value of real and tangible personal property as of January 1 of each year.² The Florida Constitution requires that all property be assessed at just value for ad valorem tax purposes,³ and provides for specified assessment limitations, property classifications, and exemptions.⁴ After the property appraiser considers any assessment limitation or use classification affecting the just value of a parcel of real property, an assessed value is produced. The assessed value is then reduced by any exemptions to produce the taxable value.⁵

Each property appraiser must complete an assessment of the value of all property within the appraiser's jurisdiction and certify to the taxing authorities the taxable value of such property no later than July 1 of each year, unless extended for good cause by the Department of Revenue.⁶ The taxable value of a parcel includes both the value of structures and other improvements on the parcel and the value of the land on which those structures and improvements sit.⁷ The property appraiser also ensures that all real property is listed on the real property assessment roll.⁸

Each taxing authority uses the taxable value provided by the property appraiser to prepare a proposed millage rate that is levied on each parcel's taxable value.⁹ Each taxing authority must compute proposed or final millage rates based on utilizing at least 95 percent of the taxable value of the property within the boundaries of the taxing authority. Each taxing authority must prepared and submit its tentative budget in accordance with applicable law.¹⁰

Within 35 days of the certification of value by the property appraiser, each taxing authority must inform the property appraiser of its proposed millage rate, its rolled-back rate,¹¹ and the date, time, and

S. 192.001(11)(d), F.S., defines "tangible personal property" as all goods, chattels, and other articles of value (but does not include the vehicular items enumerated in Art. VII, s. 1(b) of the Florida Constitution and elsewhere defined) capable of manual possession and whose chief value is intrinsic to the article itself.

location of the public hearing to be held to consider the proposed millage rate and tentative budget.¹² This information is used by the property appraiser to prepare notices of proposed property taxes.¹³ The notice must be mailed by the later of 55 days after the certification of value by the property appraiser or 10 days after the tax roll is approved or statutory interim roll procedures¹⁴ have been instituted. If the notice is not mailed until 10 days after the tax roll is approved or interim roll procedures are instituted, all statutory deadlines¹⁵ are extended by a number of days equal to the difference between the deadline for the mailing of proposed notices and 55 days after the certification of value.

Homestead Exemption

Every person having legal and equitable title to real estate and who maintains a permanent residence on the real estate (homestead property) is eligible for a $25,000 tax exemption applicable to all ad valorem tax levies, including levies by school districts.¹⁶ An additional $25,000 exemption applies to homestead property value between $50,000 and $75,000. This exemption does not apply to ad valorem taxes levied by school districts.

Exemption for Permanently and Totally Disabled Veterans

The homestead property of a veteran who was honorably discharged with a service-connected total and permanent disability is exempt from taxation.¹⁷ To qualify for this exemption, the veteran must be a permanent resident of the state on January 1 of the tax year for which exemption is being claimed or must have been a permanent resident of this state on January 1 of the year the veteran died. If the veteran predeceases their spouse, the spouse may continue to receive the exemption as long as the property remains the homestead property of the spouse and the spouse is unmarried.¹⁸

The presentation of a letter of total and permanent disability from the United States Government or United States Department of Veterans Affairs by a veteran or their spouse to the property appraiser is prima facie evidence of entitlement to the exemption.¹⁹ A veteran may apply for the exemption before receiving documentation from the United States Government or the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.²⁰ When the property appraiser receives the documentation, the exemption is granted as of the date of the original application, with excess taxes paid refunded (subject to the four-year period of limitation under s. 197.182(1)(e), F.S.).

Annual Application

Each person or organization who meets the criteria for an ad valorem tax exemption may claim the exemption if the claimant held legal title to the real or personal property subject to the exemption on January 1.²¹ The application for exemption must be filed with the property appraiser on or before March 1 and failure to make an application constitutes a waiver of the exemption for that year. The application must list and describe the property for which the exemption is being claimed and certify the ownership and use of the property. The claimant must reapply for the exemption on an annual basis, unless the property appraiser (subject to approval by a vote of the governing body of the county) has waived the annual application requirement for property after an initial application is made and the exemption granted.²²

²² S. 196.011(5), (9)(a), F.S.

The bill would allow a veteran who was honorably discharged with a service-connected total and permanent disability to apply for the homestead property exemption under s. 196.081(1), F.S., in the current tax year for a property acquired after January 1 of that year if the veteran had received the exemption on another property in the immediately preceding tax year.

The bill provides that notwithstanding the exemption filing deadline established by s. 196.011, F.S., the veteran may file for the exemption with the property appraiser up to the 25th day following the date the property appraiser mails the assessment notice under s. 200.069, F.S. The application for the exemption must list and describe both the previous homestead and new property. The applicant must also certify under oath that he or she:

- Is otherwise qualified to receive the tax exemption for permanently and totally disabled veterans;
- Holds legal title to the new property; and
- Intends to use the new property as his or her homestead.

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1: Amends s. 196.011, F.S., to provide an exception.

Section 2: Amends s. 196.081, F.S., to authorize a tax exemption for certain permanently and totally disabled veterans to be applied to property acquired in the current tax year under certain conditions.

Section 3: Provides an effective date of July 1, 2020.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

None.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

The bill may have a negative impact on local government revenues.

2. Expenditures:

None.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

The bill may reduce ad valorem tax liability for those who qualify for the exemption for certain permanently and totally disabled veterans, to the extent those veterans would not currently receive the benefit of the exemption in the year a new homestead property was purchased.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

The Revenue Estimating Conference has not yet analyzed the bill.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

The county/municipality mandates provision of Art. VII, section 18, of the Florida Constitution may apply because this bill reduces ad valorem tax revenues to the extent qualified veterans will receive the benefit of ad valorem tax exemption on two parcels in the year of transfer; however, an exemption may apply. Laws having an insignificant fiscal impact are exempt from the requirements of Art. VII, s. 18 of the Florida Constitution.

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

The bill does not provide rulemaking authority or require executive branch rulemaking.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

None.
