

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 15

Wednesday, February 5, 2020

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 9:00 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by the Honorable Mel Ponder:

Good morning, Lord. It's so great to be with You for another day. Thank You for Your goodness in each of our lives as we gather today in this House. For Your word tells us how good and pleasant it is when the brethren dwell together in unity, for there, Lord, You command the blessing. Today I ask that You would show us Your ways, O Lord, teach us Your paths, lead us in Your truth, for You are God, and You are good. Release over us today a reminder of who we are and who we are to You.

May we use our voice today to honor You and those You call us to, to bless and not to curse, to release hope and a purpose, to speak over someone their significance, to praise in dry times, so that the song we sing is one of thanks for past blessings and one of promise for tomorrow's hope. Help us, I pray, as You said in Isaiah to not remember the former things nor consider the things of old, but to focus on what You were doing on our assignments of today, on those things that release life. As always, bless our first responders, Lord, those called into harm's way. Bless and be with Speaker Oliva and his family.

In closing, Lord, I am reminded of the great words of Speaker Oliva when he said, "Spending is not caring, solving is caring." So grant upon this body the witty ideas and kingdom inventions You desire for this body to solve today's issues, and to remove credit, as President Reagan said, "There is no limit to the amount of good you can do if you don't care who gets the credit." And to do it with light and love as Martin Luther King Jr. said, "Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that; hate cannot drive out hate, only love can do that."

So, Lord, in all we do and to where we are called, may Your presence always go before us, to walk close to You, to be encouraged by You, to exhort and encourage others. For Lord, You are good, so let Your goodness lead others to repentance. You are holy, so be enthroned in our praises. You are love, so that by our examples others may know we are Yours.

And finally, Lord, I bless and challenge this body with this famous song reminder: This little light of mine, I'm going to let it shine, let it shine, let it shine, let it shine. With that I encourage those within earshot of my voice to let their light so shine before others that they would see Your good works and glorify You, our Father in heaven. We love and bless You, Lord, and thank You for Your goodness and peace here today. We ask all this, and we give You the glory for it, in Your name. And everybody said, Amen.

House Resolutions Adopted by Publication

At the request of Rep. Alexander—

HR 8011—A resolution designating February 6, 2020, as "FAMU Day" in Florida.

WHEREAS, Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University (FAMU) was founded in 1887, named a land-grant institution in 1891, and designated a university in 1953, and

WHEREAS, FAMU, a historically black college and university (HBCU) offering undergraduate, graduate, postgraduate, and professional degree programs, seeks qualified students from all racial, ethnic, religious, and national groups and has provided immeasurable educational opportunities for young men and women, and

WHEREAS, academic components of the university consist of seven colleges and seven schools: the colleges of Agriculture and Food Sciences; Education; Engineering; Law; Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences; Science and Technology; and Social Sciences, Arts, and Humanities; and the schools of Allied Health Sciences; Architecture and Engineering Technology; Business and Industry; the Environment; Graduate Studies and Research; Journalism and Graphic Communication; and Nursing, and

WHEREAS, FAMU is the number one HBCU in awarding baccalaureate degrees and in awarding doctoral degrees in Pharmacy, Pharmaceutical Sciences, and Administration to African Americans according to Diverse Issues in Higher Education's "Top 100 Producers, 2019," and

WHEREAS, FAMU is the top public HBCU for research and development according to the National Science Foundation, and is now listed in the Carnegie Classification as a Doctoral University with high research activity, and

WHEREAS, a new 700-bed residence hall is under construction, which will contribute to creating an environment that will enhance student success, and

WHEREAS, FAMU is addressing health disparities by enhancing FAMU's research capacity, increasing the number of minority research investigators, and promoting minority health as a catalyst to reducing health disparities, and

WHEREAS, FAMU is increasing the number of minority students in its Program of Excellence in STEM, a collaborative effort across disciplines that has impacted students by providing exposure to research and coursework in various STEM-related fields, and

WHEREAS, FAMU was recognized among U.S. News & World Report's 2019 ranking of the "Top Public Schools" as the Highest Ranked Public Historically Black College or University in the nation, as one of the most affordable colleges in Florida, according to College Choice, and as a National Top College for Diversity & Inclusion by Latino Leaders Magazine, and

WHEREAS, in 2019 the FAMU Rattlers football team had one of its best seasons with a record of 9-2 overall and 7-1 in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference, finishing the season ranked number one by the Black College Sports Network, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That, in recognition of Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University's contributions as an outstanding institution of higher education, February 6, 2020, is designated as "FAMU Day" in Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be presented to Larry Robinson, Ph.D., president of Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, as a tangible token of the sentiments expressed herein.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.17.
